Terminal Groups

Terminal Groups provide the Drivers Terminal for HOS, Authority Configuration, and Vehicle association for Hierarchical Reporting Groups

- Configuration using the Web Portal
- Synchronizing Changes with Devices
- Options
  - Name
  - Address
  - City
  - State
  - Zip
  - Phone
  - Time Zone
  - Apply Daylight Savings
  - Terminal Disabled
  - Device Registration Code
  - Company
  - Authorities

Configuration using the Web Portal

Please read the Multiple Operating Authority document which describes the features and how to configure for achieving your desired outcome

Synchronizing Changes with Devices

Changes will be automatically synchronized with ELDs upon the next communication received from the ELD

Options

Name
Name of this Terminal.

Address
Terminal Street Address. This is displayed on the driver's HOS log.

City
Terminal City

State
Terminal State

Zip
Terminal Postal Code

Phone
Terminal Phone Number

Time Zone
Terminal Time Zone. This determines the display time on the Truck-PC for any driver assigned to this Terminal.

Apply Daylight Savings
Applies daylight savings to the timezone when displaying time.

Terminal Disabled
Disables Terminal. Users associated with the terminal will not be abled to log in.

Device Registration Code
Code to automatically assign a vehicle to a terminal.

Company
The Company Group which this terminal is assigned also determines this Terminals place within a Hierarchical Reporting Group

Authorities
The Operational Authorities which any Driver logging onto an ELD of a Vehicle assigned to this Terminal allowed to operate under.