

How do I know that DriverTech's ELD is registered with the FMCSA?

Question:

How do I know that DriverTech's ELD is registered with the FMCSA

Answer:

There have been allegations by some state DOT officers that DriverTech's ELD units are, or soon will be, disqualified by the FMCSA. This is false.

The FMCSA has a list of registered/approved devices on its website. <https://eld.fmcsa.dot.gov/list>
